

STEPHEN COBB OF WEST BARNSTABLE JOINS AIRPORT COMMISSION

For Immediate Release

October 21, 2014

HYANNIS – Stephen P. Cobb of West Barnstable has joined the Barnstable Municipal Airport Commission following his appointment by the Barnstable Town Council. He succeeds Donald Megathlin of Cotuit who did not seek reappointment.

The seven-member commission is responsible for policy and financial oversight of the airport which is owned and operated by the Town of Barnstable.

Cobb is a Realtor with Sotheby International's Osterville office, specializing in strategic sales and marketing to luxury and commercial markets on Cape Cod. He is also director of international sales and development for EuroAsia Products, Inc. of Orlando.

Cobb's aviation experience includes sixteen years in corporate sales with Delta Air Lines, Inc.

He has served his community most recently as a member of the auction committee of the Cape Cod Lighthouse Charter School and as missions' coordinator for the Osterville Baptist Church.

Cobb's three-year term will continue through 2017.
